

Petersburg City Public Schools

This is your once-in-a-career opportunity.

We are digging deeper and growing higher to transform Petersburg City Public Schools. The school system is focused like a laser on these goals:

Accredited schools

- Teach the Virginia Standards of Learning
- Know what students have learned and not learned
- Provide instructional interventions during the school day

Increased student attendance — 95%

- Communicate student attendance expectations
- Monitor attendance data
- Provide early interventions

Increased access and opportunity for students

- Diploma Plus — The Petersburg Way

Located in central Virginia, Petersburg City Public Schools educates 4,100 students in eight schools (four elementaries with grades K-5, a middle school with grades 6-8, a high school with grades 9-12, a prekindergarten and an alternative school). More than 75 percent of student families are economically disadvantaged. The student population is 90 percent black, and the number of students who are English learners is growing.

In addition to working where you are most needed, benefits for teachers include a laptop, tuition assistance, free/discounted college classes, free classroom supplies, financial supplements for master's and doctoral degrees, ongoing professional development and teacher licensing exam tutorials.
